COPY OF FORM 990

(TO BE USED, OR COPIED, FOR)

PUBLIC INSPECTION ONLY

NOTE

Under Internal Revenue Regulations, tax-exempt charitable organizations generally must provide requesters with COPIES of:

- > Its approved exemption applications, all required attachments and any related correspondence with the IRS, and
- > Its three most recent annual information returns (Form 990), including all schedules and attachments (but not the names and addresses of contributors).

In-person requests: A member of the public may request to inspect the documents at any principal office of the organization. The entity must provide the information requested that same day. However, if the request places an "unreasonable burden" on the organization, the staff must provide copies of the requested information no later than the next business day after the unusual circumstances cease to exist (limited to a maximum of five business days after the request).

Written requests: Written requests made by fax, mail, email, or overnight service, which include the requester's address, must be honored within 30 days of receipt.

Website alternative: Instead of providing copies, an organization may make the documents available on either its own or another organization's website. If it uses this option, it has to: (1) provide an exact replica of the document as was filed with the IRS; (2) advise requesters how to access the forms on the web; (3) the site should charge no access fee and require no special software or hardware to download. Organizations that post this information on the Internet still must honor in-person requests to view the applicable documents.

Permissible charges: Tax-exempt organizations may charge a reasonable copying fee, up to $1 for the first page and 15 cents for each additional page, plus actual postage costs.

Penalties: An organization that fails to comply with the new disclosure requirements may be subject to the following penalties:

- Annual Information Return Form 990 $20 per day for as long as the failure continues, up to a maximum of $10,000 for each failure to provide an annual return.
- Exemption Application $20 per day with no maximum.
- An organization that willfully fails to comply with these public inspection rules can be subject to an additional $5,000 penalty.

Private foundation exempt: The new disclosure rules don't yet apply to private foundations. They must still make a copy of their annual return available for public inspection at their principal office for a period of 180 days after publishing a notice of availability.

Donor Information: Please note that donor information is not open to public inspection and has been excluded from this copy.

positions taken and has concluded that as of December	er 31, 2021, there are no uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be to	aken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or dis	closure in the financial statements. If the Organization were to is	ncur an income tax organizations inside the United States and permissible inside the United States are valued using costing data acquired from recognized and published resources and are valued at their estimated national utilizes the National Average Drug Acquisition Cost (NADAC) data published by Medicaid in order to estimate fair value.

Pharmaceutical Gift-in-Kind (GIK) donated contributions received from

Form 990, Part III, Line 1: Our mission is to link the church of the first world with the church of the third world in a manner that helps both the materially poor and the poor in spirit. The materially poor are served by local churches clergy, and lay leaders who have been empowered and supplied with goods by Food For The Poor. The poor in spirit are renewed by their relationship with and service to the poor through our direct ministry of teaching, encouragement, and prayer. Ultimately, we seek to bring both benefactors and recipients to a closer union with our Lord. Form 990, Part III, Line 4c, Program Service Accomplishments: partner. The charity also partnered in a seed-to-market program for rural smallholder farming families. The resulting food is directed to existing FFTP feeding programs, providing locally sourced meals and snacks to children in Colombia and Haiti. In 2022, FFTP began the implementation of two more sustainable community developments (SCD) in Honduras, bringing the total of SCDs currently under development to nine, with locations in Guatemala Colombia, El Salvador, Honduras, and Nicaragua. Sustainable community development, which typically takes about five years to complete involves identifying and addressing economic, social, spiritual challenges that arise in a community, and empowering families to be self-sufficient and able to thrive long-term.
